Marie P. DeBartolo Sports Centre

In loving memory of his mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers' Owner-President Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., dedicated the team's new training facility and office complex in August, 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of Candlestick Park), the complex provides players, coaches, and staff members with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations, and general overall operations in one functional, state of the art, setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the new facility exemplifies DeBartolo's strive for perfection, and his drive for superiority. It also reflects his dedication to the organization and his first class standard for operating procedures.

Two natural grass practice fields, with underground drainage and watering systems, allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions. Additionally, a full-size Omniturf (artificial turf) field features an innovative fiber-and-sand surface design which minimizes player injury.

A two-story, 52,000 square-foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers' had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities (except the ticket and luxury suite operations, which remain at Candlestick Park). Located upstairs at the new facility are offices for: coaches, administration, video operations, business operations, public relations, pro scouting, college scouting, and marketing/promotions.

The ground floor contains a spacious dressing room area with 60 permanent lockers, and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps when squad sizes are larger.

Off the locker room is a "players only" lounge for relaxing between meetings or practices. And, in an adjacent building are two racquetball courts for players, coaches and staff recreation. The coaches and front office staff also have separate locker rooms.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-foot by 40-foot hydrotherapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms — each featuring a video cassette projector (allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games and that day's practice sessions, or to preview an upcoming opponent).

Media facilities include a sizable workroom, alongside a large (120-seat) auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), making the new set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage, and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the media workroom is a picnic area which can be used on warm, sunny days for press luncheons.

Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. — OWNER-PRESIDENT

Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., one of the most respected and successful owners in recent League history, enters his 13th season at the helm of the San Francisco 49ers in 1989.

DeBartolo purchased a struggling franchise in 1977, and has molded it into a perennial playoff contender. Since 1980, the Niners have won 100 games (counting postseason, and entering 1989)...an average of 11 per year, and have reached the playoffs seven times, including the last six consecutive seasons.

The team has won six NFC Western Division titles and three world championships. Additionally, San Francisco is the only NFL team to qualify for the playoffs each of the past six seasons...and is the only team to win 10-or-more games in each of those last six NFL regular seasons: 1983 (10-6), 1984 (15-1), 1985 (10-6), 1986 (10-5-1), 1987 (13-2), and 1988 (10-6).

As owner, president and chief executive officer of the 49ers, DeBartolo's professional responsibilities only begin with the San Francisco football franchise, since he is also president and chief administrative officer of The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation in Youngstown, Ohio.

Although each title represents a facet of his career as separate as the two offices are distant (California and Ohio), DeBartolo's style and savvy have earned him continued success in both arenas.

With the Forty Niners, his primary function is to provide administrative leadership, financial guidance, and emotional support to his players, coaches, and staff. When Eddie (as he is known by friends, relatives and 49ers' family) purchased 90 percent interest in the franchise from the Morabito family in 1977, he promised "unbending patience".

And he proved true to his word as his patience held through the transition seasons of 1977-80. Keeping the faith has paid off to the tune of NFC West crowns in 1981, '83, '84, '86, '87, and '88; NFC Championship Game appearances in 1981, 1983, 1984, and 1988; and world championships in 1981 (Super Bowl XVI), 1984 (Super Bowl XIX), and '88 (Super Bowl XXIII).

As president and chief administrative officer of the DeBartolo Corporation, Mr. "D" (as he is fondly referred to) oversees the operation and growth of one of the country's top real estate development and management firms. Founded in 1948 by his father, Edward J. DeBartolo (chairman and chief executive officer of the firm), the DeBartolo Corporation is one of America's greatest business success stories.

During the past four decades, the DeBartolo Corporation has developed over 70 million square feet of prime retail space across the country. The firm operates over 64 million square feet - making it the nation's largest developer and manager of shopping malls. Office towers, mixed-use projects, hotels, and professional sports enterprises are also among DeBartolo Corporation holdings nationwide.

Following graduation from Notre Dame in 1968, DeBartolo began an executive training program which gave him valuable experience in each of the Corporation's departments. He was appointed vice president in 1971 and became executive vice president five years later. In '79, he assumed his current position and responsibility for the Corporation's 14,000 professionals nationwide.

DeBartolo has also actively supported charitable institutions. He has given generously of his time and influence to help St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, the Heart Fund, Cancer Crusade, the United Way, the ALS Research Foundation, and numerous other worthwhile organizations. The DeBartolo family donated 33 million dollars to the University of Notre Dame this past offseason (one of the largest donations ever to higher education in America).

He received the 1982 Salvation Army Citation of Merit in recognition of his humanitarian efforts. The organization's highest honor, the award had previously been presented to such notables as Dwight D. Eisenhower, William Randolph Hearst, and Cecil B. DeMille. At 35, DeBartolo was the youngest Salvation Army honoree in history.

In 1985, DeBartolo was hailed by the Boys' Town of Italy as its Man-of-the-Year for his support of that organization (which aids homeless and needy children). He was also the 1985 recipient of the prestigious Warner Award, the highest national individual honor given by the Pop Warner (youth) Football Association.

Eddie was national chairman for the 19th Annual Victor Awards in 1985 (sponsored by the Sportsmen's Club For The City of Hope) and served as national chairman for the City of Hope's 1986 "Spirit of Life Award" banquet.

In 1988, the San Francisco Convention & Visitors Bureau bestowed upon DeBartolo the Silver Cable Car Award for his "extraordinary contributions to San Francisco and its visitor industry".

Born and raised in Youngstown, he has actively supported that city's organizations, as well. For example, he has served as director of the Youngstown Youth Center, and as a member of the Youngstown State University Board of Trustees.

Eddie is married to his childhood sweetheart, the former Cynthia Papalia, who prefers the nickname Candy. They have three daughters: Lisa Marie, Tiffanie Lynne, and Nicole Anne.

Carmen Policy:

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - FRONT OFFICE & LEAGUE RELATIONS

In 1989, Carmen A. Policy assumes, along with his duties as General Counsel, the responsibilities of Executive Vice President, handling front office and League relations. Policy is entering his seventh year with the 49ers. He served as the team's vice president and general counsel during his first six seasons.

Policy will oversee all matters relative to legal and business considerations that are involved in the day-to-day operation of the 49ers.

As the team's chief administrative officer, Policy coordinates each of the non-football departments' activities.

A lifelong resident of Youngstown, OH, Policy was personal attorney for team owner Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., for many years prior to joining the 49ers' staff. He maintains his partnership in the Youngstown law firm of Flask, Policy, Weimer, and White.

According to his personal evaluation of the situation, he unsuccessfully attempted to play football at Youngstown Ursuline High before entering Youngstown State University, where he earned a degree in social studies in 1963. Policy completed his law studies at Georgetown University Law Center in '66.

Listed in the last three existing editions of The Best Lawyers in America, Policy has five children: James, Daniel, Edward, Kerry, and Kathy.

Keith A. Simon:

VICE PRESIDENT - BUSINESS OPERATIONS & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Keith A. Simon was promoted to the new position of vice president of business operations and chief financial officer in 1989. He had previously served as the 49ers' business manager since 1979.

Simon will provide business and financial support to each department of the 49ers, and is responsible for all off-the-field business activities. Additionally, he will oversee the team's stadium operations and team travel. Keith also serves as the liaison between the team's Santa Clara, CA, office and the DeBartolo Corp. headquarters in Youngstown, OH.

Simon's association with the DeBartolo Corp. dates back to 1975 when he was hired as an accountant at the DeBartolo-owned Thistledown Racetrack in Cleveland, OH. He became the track's General Manager in 1976. Prior to joining the DeBartolo's, Simon was chief accountant for the Denver, CO, firm of Litton Industries Datalog Division (1969-70). He moved to Sarasota, FL, to become controller/chief financial officer for Greentree Communities from 1971-75.

Born in Billings, MT, Keith played football, and baseball at Billings High. He received a degree in business administration from the University of Montana in '68.

A golf and fishing devotee, Keith and his wife (Debbie) have a son, Grant Christopher (2-25-88). The family lives in Saratoga, CA.

John E. McVay:

VICE PRESIDENT-FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

John McVay, who handles the bulk of the team's contract negotiations among his many other administrative responsibilities, is in his 11th year with the club, and his first as vice president-football administration.

McVay began his career with the 49ers in January of 1979 as the team's director of player personnel. He was promoted to director of football operations in 1980 and served in the administrative vice president's capacity until being named vice president and general manager in 1983.

A native of Bellaire, OH, and a product of the famous high school football town of Massillon, OH, McVay came to the 49ers after having served the New York Giants as head coach for two and one-half seasons (1976-78).

He had been hired by Giants' Owner Wellington Mara in 1975 as an assistant coach in charge of research and development, but was elevated to head coach in the middle of the '76 season when Bill Arnsparger was released.

Prior to joining the Giants, McVay was the head coach and general manager of the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League, where his teams were 24-7. McVay had left the University of Dayton, where he was head football coach for nine years (1965-73), and athletic director in '72 and '73, to join the Southmen. McVay's son, Jim, who is currently the Executive Director for college football's Hall of Fame Bowl in Tampa, FL, was a quarterback and a safety at Dayton.

McVay excelled as a player before entering coaching and administrative work. He was an All-Ohio center as a Massillon schoolboy, and an All-Midwest selection and two-time team MVP as a center at Miami University in Oxford, OH, where he played for both Woody Hayes and Ara Parseghian. Because of John's lack of size, Hayes awarded McVay Miami's last available football scholarship his freshman year, and John went on to become a four-year regular for the Redskins. He captained the team as a senior, and today is a member of that school's athletic Hall of Fame. Another of McVay's sons, John Jr., followed in his father's footsteps and played football for Miami. John Jr. was a safety as was John's third son, Tim, who was captain at the University of Indiana.

McVay went from Miami to become one of its 60-plus "Cradle of Coaches" alumni who have been successful collegiate and professional football coaches and administrators throughout the U.S. and Canada.

His coaching career began with a three-year stint at Lancaster (OH) High School, and he moved to Franklin (OH) High for one year, before a five-year stay (41-7) at Canton (OH) Central Catholic High School. From the prep ranks he joined Duffy Daugherty's staff at Michigan State as an assistant in 1962 and stayed three years. From MSU, McVay took over the Dayton post, and led the Flyers to their first winning grid season in ten years when they finished 8-2 in 1966.

John and his wife, Lee, recently moved to Saratoga, CA, to be closer to the team's new Santa Clara training facility.

George Seifert: HEAD COACH

George Seifert, the 49ers' nine-year assistant coach and defensive coordinator since 1983, enters the 1989 season as the team's new head coach, the 12th in 49ers' history, and the team's first in more than a decade.

Seifert replaces Bill Walsh, who guided the San Francisco 49ers to three world titles from 1981 through '88. Walsh resigned from his position as head coach in January, but remained with the 49ers as executive vice president for football operations, until accepting an offer from NBC Television/Radio in July.

Under Seifert's leadership as defensive coordinator, the 49ers' claimed the top ranking among all NFL defensive units in 1987 (the first time in history that San Francisco led the League in fewest total yards allowed).

This past year, the 49ers rated third in the NFC against the run, third against the pass, and third in total defense. The Niners were rated eighth in the NFL against the pass, third in total defense, and third against the run, while holding their opponents under 100 yards rushing eight times, during the '88 season.

Seifert, who celebrated his 49th birthday January 22 (during San Francisco's 20-16 win over Cincinnati in Super Bowl XXIII), joined the Niners' coaching staff as secondary coach in 1980 ... following 15 years in the collegiate ranks.

George began his coaching career in 1964 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater — the University of Utah, after a six-month tour of duty with the U.S. Army. George, who played offensive guard and linebacker at Utah, was recommended for the graduate assistant post by his former Utah roommate and teammate, Lynn Stiles (San Francisco's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach) when Stiles moved up from that position to a full-time assistant post.

In '65, Seifert was named head coach at Westminster College in Salt Lake City, UT, and moved to assistants positions at Iowa (1966) and Oregon (1967-71), before joining Stanford University's staff (1972-74), as secondary coach (transforming the defensive backfield into the Pac-8 Conference's best statistically in 1972 and '73).

George left Stanford in '75 to become head coach at Cornell University (1975-76), but returned to Stanford to join Walsh's staff in 1977. The Cardinal pass defense ranked second in the Pac-10 in both '78 and '79.

In 1980, Seifert joined Walsh again, this time with the 49ers as secondary coach.

A native of San Francisco, George grew up in "The City's" Mission District and is a graduate of Poly High School. He played offensive tackle, end, and linebacker at Poly. One Poly High benefit George enjoyed was the arrangement for Poly students to serve as ushers at Kezar Stadium for 49ers' home games.

Seifert and his wife, Linda, have two children (Eve and Jason) and live in Sunnyvale, CA.

A 1963 graduate of Utah, George was a zoology major who was interested in wildlife management and teaching school.

1989 COACHES AND STAFF

Jerry Attaway — PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT

Jerry Attaway's role includes handling dietary and nutritional needs of each player, while supervising weight and exercise training.

Jerry begins his seventh season as 49ers' coordinator for physical development, following five years in a similar capacity at the University of Southern California.

Attaway is a product of UC-Davis and Cal State-Sacramento. An injury cut short his football career at UC-Davis, and he finished his undergraduate work in physical education at Sacramento State in 1972.

Following graduation, he served as an assistant coach at the College of Idaho for three years and then spent the next two seasons as an assistant at Utah State, prior to his USC stint.

During his first three years at Southern Cal, Jerry was the assistant offensive line coach as well as coordinator for physical development. He concentrated on those latter duties his last two years with the Trojans.

Jerry was born Jan. 3, 1946, in Susanville, CA. He is single and lives in Sunnyvale, CA.

Mike Holmgren — OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS

A native of San Francisco, Holmgren returned home in '86 to accept his first coaching job in the professional ranks as 49ers quarterback coach. He was named offensive coordinator in '89.

SUPERBOWL XXIII

With their thrilling 20-16 come-from-behind victory over the Cincinnati Bengals in the final minute of Super Bowl XXIII, the San Francisco 49ers staked claim as the "Team of the 1980's" after capturing their third Super Bowl of the decade. Cincinnati place kicker Jim Breech connected on a 40-yard field goal with 3:20 left in the fourth quarter to give the Bengals a 16-13 lead. After a penalty on the ensuing kickoff moved the 49ers back to their own 8-yard line, San Francisco quarterback Joe Montana engineered the Niners on a 92-yard 11-play drive. The drive culminated when John Taylor caught a 10-yard pass from Montana with :54 remaining in the game to conclude one of the most exciting Super Bowls in history. On the drive, the 49ers overcame a 2-and-20 situation as Montana, who completed 23 of 36 passes for a Super Bowl record 357 yards and two touchdowns, hit Jerry Rice over the middle for a 27-yard gain and a first down at the Bengals' 18-yard line. Earlier in the drive, Rice had a 17-yard reception to move the 49ers into Cincinnati territory. Roger Craig also had a key 13-yard reception on the march. After the score was tied 3-3 at halftime, the Bengals took a 6-3 lead on a 43-yard field goal by Breech. 49ers Strike Gold!

Stadium Information

The San Francisco 49ers begin their 19th year in Candlestick Park.

The "new" Candlestick was completed in 1972 (the 49ers played in the park while it was still under construction in 1971), when it was completely encircled, carpeted with Astroturf, furnished throughout with comfortable chairs (no bleachers), and surrounded by additional parking space.

The stadium seats 65,701 for football. There are three major ticket plazas and entry levels. Every seat in the stadium is a chairtype, plastic unit for comfort and durability. Completely double-decked, the park features a 7,394-seat movable section.

In the spring of 1979, the artificial turf was replaced by natural grass.

The 49ers' Historical Highlights

Here are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1950 — The 49ers fell flat on their faces in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 — In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race to the final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle" the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y.A. Tittle and Billy Wilson began their great careers.

1952 — After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.

1953 — The 49ers had their best NFL showing, 9-3, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10-2. Two of the San Francisco losses came with Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 — Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Y.A. Tittle, Hugh McElhenny, and Joe Perry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction.

1955 — With Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader who succeeded Buck Shaw as a head coach.

1956 — In Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were bogged in last place at mid-season with a 1-6 record. They won four and tied one of their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 — This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a "Cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Y.A. Tittle to rookie R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21-17. The magnificent Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, although they held a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 — An up-and-down season which finished on a high note when Green Bay and Baltimore were defeated in the last two games. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacerations at the hands of Los Angeles and Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 — With Howard W. (Red) Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. J.D. Smith, converted from a defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 — Howard W. (Red) Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of the last five games to finish in a tie for second place. Third-string quarterback Bobby Waters threw the passes that upset Baltimore, 30-22, in the final two minutes.

1961 — The success of Howard W. Hickey's Shotgun amazed the football world, especially the 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the Shotgun was stopped, John Brodie took over again in the "T" and had the finest season in 49er QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 must remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 — For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false — the 49ers won only one of seven at home, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 — Injuries in multitude to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a smashing 20-14 upset of ultimate World Champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964 — Club chief executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injury to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season although they proved to be one of the toughest defensive clubs in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by end Dave Parks, quarterback George Mira and linebacker Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 overall record.

1965 — Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie Ken Willard and veteran John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The over-all record was 7-6-1 and the season-opening 52-24 beating of the Chicago Bears marked the largest number of points ever scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 — After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before midway in the season and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual World Champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they rolled to a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. Guard John Thomas and end Dave Parks were all-pro, and they joined guard Howard Mudd, center Bruce Bosley, fullback Ken Willard and linebacker Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 — An auspicious start (they were 5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. Quarterback George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots however, as, with John Brodie in fine form, the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game, guard Howard Mudd and linebacker Dave Wilcox were named to all-pro teams, and Mudd and center Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight time.

1968 — Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record as the season turned on key wins over New York Giants, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, receiver Clifton McNeil and running back Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, linebacker Dave Wilcox and defensive back Kermit Alexander, sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and guard Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL, and joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 — Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season, went five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had done that in 13 previous games. It got a little better after that (final record was 4-8-2) and five players — Jimmy Johnson, Dave Wilcox, Elmer Collett, Ken Willard and rookie Gene Washington — were selected for the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also all-pro and winner of the Eshmont Award.

1970 — This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The 10-3 record was the best as an NFL club, the Western Division (NFC) Championship was the first in the NFL. In a season of superlatives, John Brodie was the NFL's "Player of the Year," Bruce Taylor was NFC "Rookie of the Year," Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC "Coach of the Year." Brodie, receiver Gene Washington, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were all-pro and joined by tackle Len Rohde in being selected for the Pro Bowl.

1971 — The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in the bitterly-remembered 1957 game. The season was also the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. Center Forrest Blue, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were all-pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Gene Washington, Vic Washington, Cedrick Hardman and Bruce Taylor.

1972 — Early-season inconsistency compounded by an injury to John Brodie in the fifth game of the season cast appall on 49er prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes for a 20-17 win over Minnesota that clinched divisional title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. Center Forrest Blue, defensive back Jimmy Johnson, tight end Ted Kwalick, wide receiver Gene Washington and linebacker Dave Wilcox were all-pro selections.

1973 — In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule and falling victim to a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of quarterback John Brodie and defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. Center Forrest Blue and Dave Wilcox were all-pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Woody Peoples and Tom Wittum.

1974 — The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter Steve Spurrier a week before the season opened sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games the club lost a team record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of the last five games to finish the season at 6-8. Running back Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News "Rookie of the Year" and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with quarterback Tom Owen and defensive back Mike Holmes. Center Forrest Blue and punter Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial all-pro linebacker Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 — A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. High point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, defensive end Cedrick Hardman was the club's only all-pro selection and only player chosen for the Pro Bowl. Jimmy Johnson became the club's first-ever two-time Eshmont Award winner.

1976 — A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new quarterback Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever, 6-1, before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak that knocked the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with his 1,203 yards on the ground. Tommy Hart was named all-pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, Cleveland Elam, and Dave Washington. Center Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Tommy Hart became a two-time winner of the Eshmont Award and Cornerback Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 — In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began an all new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests for a 5-9 record overall. Strong safety Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Eshmont Award. Cleveland Elam was selected all-pro and played for the NFC team in the Pro Bowl.

1978 — The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 in '78 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First, Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new Coach and General Manager on January 9, 1979, replacing O'Connor as coach and Joe Thomas as General Manager. Running back Paul Hofer, who replaced acclaimed O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont Award.

1979 — The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive offensive units in the NFL in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. Running back Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. Quarterback Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. Kicker Ray Wersching set a club record 83.3 field goal percentage, also leading the league with that mark. No 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl squad. O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980 — In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14 enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That Dec. 7 in Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit to the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest points-margin-comeback in NFL history. Randy Cross at guard and Freddie Solomon as a punt returner were All-NFC selections by Pro Football Weekly. In addition, linebacker Bobby Leopold, defensive end Jim Stuckey and punter Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, fullback Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with a team-record 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at .645 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981 — It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to: a 16-3 record (best 1981 record in the league, fourth best in NFL history, and best ever for the 49ers), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers), and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh was named to every possible NFC Coach-of-the-Year award and to all seven NFL Coach-of-the-Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl — Dwight Clark, Randy Cross, Joe Montana, Fred Dean, Ronnie Lott, and Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to all-pro teams as recognized by the NFL — Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player-of-the-Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year (NFL Players Association), and NFC Defensive Player-of-the-Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, Mich., in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including that season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins — before a loss to Cleveland 15-12 — and ran off eight more wins (including the playoffs, the NFC Championship, and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice — including all three postseason foes — and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-46-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (Carlton Williamson, Eric Wright, and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, Freddie Solomon, and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds to form a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982 — The defending world champions — the San Francisco 49ers — did not enjoy the 1982 season ... but then, not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs in the strike-shortened season. San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus all-pro (and NFL Player-of-the-Year by Sports Illustrated). Keena Turner (2nd team all-pro), Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), Keith Fahnhorst, and Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight +300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983 — For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game... and almost returned to the Super Bowl. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (3rd best regular season victory total in club history) and Western Division Champions (5th time since 1970, 2nd time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included: Joe Montana (the League's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17½), Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven...two for scores), Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), Ray Wersching (team record 126 points, including a perfect 51 of 51 PATs), offensive linemen Randy Cross, Keith Fahnhorst, and John Ayers, running backs Roger Craig

(752 yards rushing, 427 receiving) and Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving), and NFL All-Rookie Team pick Riki Ellison (two interceptions in the playoffs).

1984 – The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a League record 15 games, including all eight road contests — setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by Roger Craig and Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a League low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Pill Walsh's charges — Montana, Wendell Tyler, Keith Fahnhorst, Randy Cross, and Fred Quillan on offense and Dwight Hicks, Ronnie Lott, Carlton Williamson, and Eric Wright (the entire Niners' secondary); and Keena Turner of defense.

1985 – At 10-6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, Roger Craig and Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC Rookie-of-the-Year and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter, and DE John Hartly). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did defensive backs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986 – The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981.

Offensively, the team was led by all-pro wide receiver Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores.

The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on pick-off returns tied another club mark. Ronnie Lott tied Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions.

The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. Quarterback Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, for example, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

1987 – The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13-2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best won-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards, and was best among League defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners' history that the team led the League in fewest total yards allowed.

Jerry Rice set NFL records with 23 receiving touchdowns and scoring by reception in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide-out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication.

Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by nose tackle Michael Carter and running back Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988 – The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with :34 remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade, and the rights to the title "team of the 1980's."

The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record, but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play.

That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. Along the way to closing out the year, RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners' single season standards for field goals attempted (38) and three-pointers made (27).

Jerry Rice went on to a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota; A Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago; and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown.

Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor, and Craig were selected to the Pro Bowl.

TEAM LOGO

* The team's original logo depicted the city's wild beginnings. It consisted of a prospector, clad in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just misses the miner's head, the other misses his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars. In that picture, the prospector was in front of a saloon. The 49ers dropped the saloon from the logo. The prospector logo was in use from 1946 through 1966. During a four-year space (1967-70), the team issued a special logo — a large number 49, flanked by a football and the letters "SF" — which was displayed on jackets and certain publications.

Niners No. 1 pick of '89 draft, Tennessee Linebacker Keith DeLong

Instant Replay Approved for 1989

For the fourth consecutive season, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system stays the same as in 1988. The Replay Official will be assigned a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game.

The following table outlines the number of reversals and plays closely reviewed by Instant Replay in each of the previous three seasons.

	Games	Reversals	Plays Closely Reviewed
1986	224	38	374
1987	210	57	490
1988	224	53	537

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin. In 1989, the vote was 24-4.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks — an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the games, and a "no-frills" approach using existing TV coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of the nine nationally-televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system which later was adopted for 1986, 1987, and 1988. A total of 28 plays (17 confirmed call, 4 inconclusive, 1 reversed, and 6 no replay shown) were closely examined in the 1985 experiment.

Q—What is the objective of this system?

A—The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Q—Who will be involved?

A—The Replay Official (a former NFL or collegiate official) will be positioned in a sideline Replay Booth, which will house two TV monitors and two high-speed VCRs plus radio communications to the on-field officials. The Replay Official makes the decision although a Communicator (normally a member of the League Office staff) and a Technician also will be there to lend logistical help.

Q—Why is the system referred to as "limited" Instant Replay?

A—This system will concentrate on plays of possession or touching (e.g. fumbles, interceptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g. receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line). It also will be used to determine whether there are more than 11 men on the field.

Q—Why aren't most fouls included in this system?

A—It is recognized that in most circumstances the on-field officials have the best vantage points involving fouls. It is for this reason that Instant Replay will not review a list of the following 26 fouls:

1. Clipping
2. Encroachment or offsides
3. Grasp of facemask
4. False start
5. Defensive pass interference
6. Offensive pass interference
7. Offensive holding and illegal use of hands
8. Illegal batting or punching ball
9. Illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick
10. Illegal crackback
11. Illegal motion
12. Illegal use of forearm or elbow
13. Illegal use of hands by defense
14. Illegally kicking ball
15. Illegally snapping ball
16. Intentional grounding
17. Member of punting team downfield early
18. Illegal formation
19. Palpably unfair act
20. Piling on
21. Roughing the passer
22. Running into roughing kicker
23. Striking, kicking, or kneeling
24. Unnecessary roughness
25. Unsportsmanlike conduct
26. Use of helmet as a weapon

Q—Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

A—No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to which plays to show or not to show.

Q—What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

A—The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other one continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.
